THE FIGHT SONG

*OSU our hats are off to you,
Beavers, Beavers, fighters thru and thru,
We'll cheer throughout the land,
We'll root for every plan,
That's made for old OSU.*

NICKNAME — THE BEAVERS

In the early days of the institution, Oregon State University's athletic teams were known as the Aggies. When orange uniforms replaced the drab sweatshirt gray and tan jerseys, the teams were referred to as the Orangemen.

In 1916 the school yearbook was renamed "The Beaver" and the name Beaver became associated with the school. It is believed the press also had some influence in changing the name, particularly L.H. Gregory of The Oregonian newspaper. The name gained instant popularity among alumni and students.

The Beaver is the state's official animal.

THE MASCOT — BENNY

Benny Beaver was adopted as Oregon State University's mascot in 1952 after the school had a reported three previous mascots. The first mascot in 1893 was a coyote named Jimmie, owned by M.M.H. Kriebel. In 1909, a second mascot appeared on the scene. Dr. John Bell, a Corvallis pastor and former regent of Corvallis when the college was taken over by the state and became Oregon Agricultural College. In the early 1900s, "Doc Bell" was considered to be the varsity football squad's "mascot" because of his steadfast attendance and advising. In 1921 there was an attempt to make a live Beaver, "Bevo", into the school mascot, but with little success.

Benny Beaver, OSU's current mascot, was introduced to the student body by the school's rally squad on September 18, 1952, in an effort to pick up sagging school spirit.

"Benny Beaver, the rally squad's candidate for hand-somest man in school, has never been on campus before," according to The Barometer (student paper), at the time.

"The animal stands six-feet tall, wears vivid orange knickerbockers, a black jersey, and his familiar orange and black rooters lid."

Adopted as the official mascot in 1952, Benny Beaver still fires up the crowds at OSU athletic events today.

Benny Beaver, while officially accepted as the school's mascot in 1952, actually can be traced back to the 1940-41 school year. A statue of a beaver named "Benny" appears in the school's yearbook, and later a Barometer sports columnist used the pen name "Benny Beaver."

TEAM COLORS — ORANGE & BLACK

Oregon State was known as Corvallis College until the mid 1890s and the school color was navy blue. A faculty committee appointed by school President John Bloss voted to replace blue with orange. Not long after, black was selected by the student body as a background color. A local tailor named J.H. Harris donated black uniforms for the baseball team in this time frame, and it is believed to be where the black color scheme began in athletics, although that is debatable. An article in the local Corvallis Gazette-Times in 1892 describes the use of orange and black in commencement ceremonies, nearly a year prior to orange becoming the official color.

While orange was originally the official color, over the years black has become more universally accepted as one of the official colors. Today, nearly all of OSU accepts orange and black as the official colors.

TELEVISION

PAC-12 TV PARTNERS — As a member of the Pac-12 Conference, Beaver games air regionally and nationally on The CW and FOX. Oregon State's road games will also appear on the CBS Sports Network in 2024.

Mike Parker is entering his 26th season calling Oregon State football, men's basketball and baseball action. He has been behind the microphone for some of the school's crowning achievements on the athletic fields, including three baseball national championships, multiple bowl games, and serves as the master of ceremonies for numerous events on and off the OSU campus.

The "voice of the Beavers" is a 1982 graduate of the University of Oregon with a bachelor's degree in rhetoric and communications. His broadcasting career includes play-by-play for football, basketball and baseball for high school sports in Oregon, beginning in 1977. He was the voice of the Eugene Emeralds (1983-86) minor league baseball club and the Oregon women's basketball program (1983-87). He also was the play-by-play voice of the AAA Portland Beavers from 1987-92.

Parker hosted a show on all-sports KFXR Radio from 1990-95 before moving to KEX Radio as host of Sportsline and the Fifth Quarter program following Portland Trail Blazers games. Parker has been named the Oregon Sportscaster of the Year six times. Mike and his wife Missy have two daughters, Lydia and Ellie.

RON CALLAN

Ron Callan has spent over 35 years in the broadcast media business, all in the Pacific Northwest, and is in his 12th year as a member of the Beaver broadcast team. Callan handles sideline duties as well as hosting the pre- and post-game shows. He has been named the Associated Press Sportscaster of the Year three times.

Callan spent seven seasons as the sideline reporter for the Seattle Seahawks' radio network after a 10-year stint hosting the Washington Huskies' postgame show on KIRO TV in Seattle.

The 1974 Linfield College graduate also has worked for KVDO TV in Salem, KTVB TV in Boise, KHQ TV in Spokane and Root Sports. Callan, a former opera singer, has three children - Cassie, Daniel and Lily.

JIM WILSON

Jim Wilson is in his 21st year on the OSU football radio crew, and has also worked as a color analyst on OSU baseball broadcasts.

He is one of the top two-sport student-athletes in the history of the school, participating in baseball and football.

Wilson, a member of the OSU Sports Hall of Fame, still holds the school record for home runs in one season with 21 and for single season (.829) and career (.640) slugging percentage. He was the Pac-10 Conference's Northern Division MVP and third team All-American in 1982. Wilson was drafted by the Cleveland Indians in 1982 and played Major League Baseball with the Indians and Seattle Mariners, and in Japan. Wilson lettered in football as an offensive lineman in 1980 and '81.

Jim and his wife Lisa have been married for 27 years and have twin daughters, Esti and Evan.

STEVE PREECE

Steve Preece has been a mainstay with the Beavers both on the field as a quarterback on the famed 1967 "Giant Killers" team and in the booth as a color analyst for Beaver broadcasts. The 1969 OSU graduate played nine seasons in the NFL for the New Orleans Saints, Philadelphia Eagles, Denver Broncos, Los Angeles Rams and Seattle Seahawks. He played on four conference championship teams with the Rams.

Preece adds insight on network pre-game radio. He is married to Karen Renee Hammer. Preece has two sons, Travis and Nick, and a daughter Whitney and her husband Pete. He also has one grandson, Travis.

COACHES & STAFF

TRENT BRAY

HEAD COACH

10th season at Oregon State
1st season as Head Coach
@Coach_Bray

Trent Bray, one of the most notable defensive players in Oregon State history, was tabbed as the Beavers' 32nd head coach on November 28, 2023.

"I'm excited to be able to announce Trent as our next head coach," Barnes said. "After interviewing several qualified candidates, we realized our top choice, Trent, has already been a mainstay at the Valley Football Center and Reser Stadium. He's been a part of Beaver Nation for a long time and love for this place is real. The connection and trust he has built with our student athletes is unmatched. His energy and determination as head coach will be a catalyst for continued program success."

Bray's elevation as Oregon State's 32nd head coach comes after two-and-a-half seasons as the Beavers' defensive coordinator, where he turned the program's defense into one of the top units in the nation. The 2024 season will mark his 10th as an Oregon State coach; he came to Corvallis for a three-year stint from 2012-14 before returning in 2018.

Bray, a 2022 Broyles Award nominee for the nation's top assistant coach, completed his sixth season during his second stint with the Beavers in 2023. He came back to Oregon State in 2018 as the team's linebackers coach and was promoted to defensive coordinator in November 2021.

The OSU defense immediately became one of the top units in the Pac-12 under his guidance. Oregon State gave up six fewer points per game in 2022 compared to 2021, while also allowing 55 fewer yards. The Beavers also posted a Pac-12-best 71 pass breakups. In addition, Oregon State led the conference in red zone defense, while allowing the fewest plays of 10 or more yards.

The Beavers' 2023 defense was stout, allowing 340 yards and 21.3 points per game under his tutelage, both of which ranked among the Pac-12's leaders.

The Beavers gave up 104 yards per game on the ground, good for 15th nationally, and the team's scoring defense was less than 3 points per game shy of the top-20. Oregon State finished the 2023 regular season second in the Pac-12 in total sacks (36), third in tackles for loss (72) and interceptions (12) and fourth in fewest opponent plays of 10 or more yards.

Bray and the Beavers participated in the 2023 Tony The Tiger Sun Bowl. He did not coach in the game but was a big part of the team's third consecutive bowl game.

It marked the 11th bowl all-time for Bray, who played in three as a player. It was his eighth as a collegiate coach.

Bray coached two All-Americans during his second OSU tenure - Avery Roberts in 2021 and Hamilcar Rashed Jr. in 2019. Rashed Jr. set the Oregon State single-season record with 14 sacks and 22.5 tackles for loss during his All-American season. Roberts, meanwhile, led the Pac-12 in tackles in back-to-back seasons (128 in 2021, 69 in 2020), ranking seventh nationally in 2021.

Jack Colletto, who was converted to linebacker after coming to OSU as a quarterback, was named the 2022 Hornung Award winner as the most versatile player in college football. Nine linebackers, meanwhile, were named All-Pac-12 performers in his six seasons, while 20 total defensive players earned conference recognition since Bray was named defensive coordinator.

The 2022 Broyles nomination was the second for Bray, a native of Pullman, Wash. He was nominated in 2016 during his second year at Nebraska as the team's linebackers coach. Bray, while with the Cornhuskers, helped lead Nebraska to a No. 9 national mark allowing just 109 rush yards per game in 2015.

Bray's first stint on the Oregon State coaching staff came from 2012-14. He opened his tenure as a graduate assistant and was moved to linebackers coach in 2013. He helped Oregon State to trips to the Alamo and Hawai'i Bowls, and was a part of a defensive staff that saw OSU ranked second in the conference for scoring defense and third for rush defense in 2012.

He opened his collegiate coaching career from 2009-11 at Arizona State. Bray was a graduate assistant with the Sun Devils in 2009 before leading the team's linebackers in 2010 and 2011. ASU finished first in the conference in rushing defense in 2010 while placing third in third down and red zone defense. He coached former NFL eight-year veteran Vontaze Burfict during his tenure in Tempe.

Bray lettered for the Beavers from 2002-05, starting 34 consecutive games during his career. He ranks sixth for a career with 337 tackles, and was a 2005 Pac-12 First-Team selection. He totaled 122 tackles in 2004 and was named a second-team all-conference selection. He was also the 2004 Insight Bowl Most Valuable Player after recording 10 tackles.

Bray is a 2007 graduate of Oregon State, earning a degree in sociology.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) was a type of "Super Alliance" that was designed in 1997 to match the two top-rated teams in a national championship and to create competitive match-ups in the four other BCS games. The BCS is composed of three variables that comprise a team's standing: the Harris poll, the ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll, and a series of five computer rankings.

Las Vegas, Nev. • Dec. 17, 2022

Weather — Indoors

LAS VEGAS – The 14th-ranked Oregon State Beavers defeated Florida, 30-3, in the SRS Distribution Las Vegas Bowl to cap a 10-3 campaign. For the third time in program history, the Beavers (10-3, 6-3) have won their 10th game in a season.

Ben Gulbranson threw for 165 yards and a score, completed 12-of-19 passes and ran for another 15 yards and a score on the ground. Deshaun Fenwick led the rushing attack with 107 yards on 21 carries. Jam Griffin and Tyjon Lindsey each added a rushing touchdown.

Kyreï Fisher-Morris led the defense with 11 tackles – including seven solo stops, three for loss and a sack. Jaden Robinson and Omar Speights combined for 13.0 total stops, including Robinson's five solo tackles. Alex Austin and Ryan Cooper Jr. each registered a pass breakup to stifle Florida's passing game.

The Beavers found the scoreboard first following a eight play, 65-yard drive that was capped off by a Tyjon Lindsey rush for eight yards for the 7-0 advantage. Jaden Robinson and Omar Speights combined for 13.0 total stops, including Robinson's five solo tackles. Alex Austin and Ryan Cooper Jr. each registered a pass breakup to stifle Florida's passing game.

After keeping the Gators off the board on downs, Oregon State added to the lead after a 59-yard drive set up a 27-yard score from Everett Hayes to make it a 10-0 affair with 4:32 left in the second. The Beaver defense kept the opposition off the board twice to keep the score intact going into the break.

An 11-yard rush by Colletto off a Beaver fake punt set the offense with their second touchdown of the day on the second half's opening drive. Gulbranson found Golden between a pair of Florida defenders for the 15-yard connection to add seven to lead following Hayes' PAT. On the ensuing drive – set up by a punt blocked by Colletto – Gulbranson sprinted seven yards to the endzone for his second score.

Fenwick stretched the lead even further when he found the endzone from two yards out to make it a 29-0 ballgame before Atticus Sappington connected on the PAT to make it 30. The Beavers chewed off 6:33 from the clock and went 98 yards on 33 plays.

Oregon State previously won 10 games in the 2000 and 2006 seasons.

2013 — SHERATON HAWAII BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. BOISE STATE

Honolulu, Hawai'i • Dec. 24, 2013

Weather — 81 degrees; Wind 14 mph NE; 58% Humidity

HONOLULU, Hawai'i — Rashaad Reynolds returned two fumbles for touchdowns and the Oregon State offense racked up 454 yards to pace the Beavers to a 38-23 win over Boise State at the 2013 Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl.

The Beavers took the early lead taking a 31-6 advantage into halftime. That was due in large part to the Beavers' defense, which forced two fumbles. Both were returned by Reynolds, who, in his last collegiate game, collected 10 tackles amongst the two fumble returns.

The first fumble return came with OSU up 10-3 in the first quarter after a touchdown reception by Brandin Cooks and field goal by Trevor Romaine. Scott Crichton sacked Boise State quarterback Grant Hedrick, forcing a fumble, which enabled Reynolds to pick the ball up at the Broncos' 3-yard line and make it to the end zone with ease, upping the Beavers' lead to 17-3.

Reynolds scored the game's next touchdown, and in grand fashion, returning the Boise State fumble 70 yards. With the Broncos driving, cornerback Larry Scott forced a fumble from Troy Ware after a short pass. Reynolds picked it up and had a clear path to the end zone.

That momentum carried over to the Oregon State offense, which scored its next two — and final — touchdowns on the ground. The first came on a 9-yard carry from Terron Ward. It came with 2:46 left in the first half and sent OSU to the 25-point lead at the break.

A little more than seven minutes into the second half, the OSU offense picked up where it left off as Storm Woods carried the ball into the end zone from 5 yards out.

Woods stood out offensively for the Beavers, collecting 107 yards on the ground via 16 carries. He paced the Beavers' ground game, which totaled 195 yards overall.

Sean Mannion passed for 259 yards, with 60 going to Cooks, who reached that figure by way of eight catches. He finished the season with a Pac-12 Conference record 128 receptions as well as 1,730 yards, surpassing USC's Marqise Lee in both categories.

Mannion's 259 passing yards gave him 4,662 for the season, surpassing Washington's Cody Pickett for the most in a single-year by a Pac-12 quarterback. He also tossed 37 touchdowns in 2013, tied for the third-most with Andrew Luck.

2012 — VALERO ALAMO BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. TEXAS

TEXAS
OREGON STATE31
27Alamodome
San Antonio, Texas • Dec. 29, 2012

Weather — Indoors

(AP) - David Ash threw two fourth-quarter touchdown passes, the last a 36-yard strike to Marquise Goodwin with 2:24 left, to give Texas a 31-27 comeback victory over No. 15 Oregon State in the Alamo Bowl.

The Longhorns (9-4) never led before Goodwin scored his second touchdown on a deep post pattern, just a down after Texas converted a fourth-and-1 play to keep its chances alive.

Storm Woods ran for 118 yards and scored two touchdowns for Oregon State (9-4).

Ash was 21 of 33 for 241 yards. Ash sputtered until the fourth quarter, when he went 9 for 11 for 146 yards. Texas had no choice but to stick with the only backups two redshirt freshmen who haven't taken a snap all season.

Oregon State quarterback Cody Vaz was 15 of 28 for 194 yards. The Beavers had negative 4 yards in the fourth quarter as they were muffed by the Longhorns defense that was led by Alex Okafor, who finished with 4 1/2 sacks.

The Valero Alamo Bowl marked the Beavers' 16th bowl game and OSU is 10-6 all-time in them - 5-2 under head coach Mike Riley. The dean of Pac-12 Conference coaches engineered one of the top turnarounds in the nation in 2012, with the Beavers improving to a 9-4 mark after finishing the 2011 campaign at 3-9.

The six-win improvement tied Ohio State and Middle Tennessee for the best win improvements from last season.

Markus Wheaton ended his Oregon State career at the Alamo Bowl, catching three passes for 37 yards - he left as the program's all-time receptions leader with 227 and is sixth with 1,244 yards.

Another senior playing in his final game for the Beavers, Jordan Poyer, was tied for third on the team with five tackles, including a sack.

Linebacker Michael Doctor was the team leader with 11 tackles.

Oregon State found itself up 20-10 at halftime and 27-17 entering the fourth quarter but two late Texas touchdowns sealed the come-from-behind win for the Longhorns. Ash found Johnathan Gray from 15 yards out with 8:18 remaining and followed that up with a 36-yard touchdown pass to Marquise Goodwin with just 2:24 left in the game.

Sam Boyd Stadium
Las Vegas, Nev. • Dec. 22, 2009

Weather — 51 degrees, Cloudy, W-37-44 (North)

(AP) - Max Hall threw for 192 yards and three touchdowns leading No. 15 BYU past No. 16 Oregon State 44-20 in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Hall gave the Cougars their third win in five straight bowl appearances in the Sin City and ended the Beavers' run of five consecutive bowl wins.

Hall threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Luke Ashworth, a 17-yard scoring strike to Dennis Pitta and a 15-yard TD pass to Manase Tonga. He had 139 yards passing in the first half.

Tonga added an 18-yard rushing touchdown, and Harvey Unga finished with 76 yards rushing and a TD for BYU (11-2).

Oregon State (8-5) scored on 1-yard runs by quarterback Sean Canfield and Jacquizz Rodgers, and a 31-yard pass to Damola Adeniji from Ryan Katz. Adeniji led all receivers with seven receptions for 102 yards.

Canfield completed only four passes in the first half as the Beavers struggled to sustain drives. He finished 20 for 41 for 173 yards and an interception.

The normally dependable Rodgers fumbled for the first time in his college career in the first quarter, on his 621st touch, and Matt Bauman returned it 34 yards for the go-ahead score. Officials used replay to see whether Canfield's checkdown toss to Rodgers was a lateral or a forward pass, and upheld the touchdown.

Oregon State finished with three turnovers, including a fumble by Rodgers' brother James.

Winds gusted to 50 mph at Sam Boyd Stadium and temperatures fell to 30 degrees. The gusts were so strong that one of Oregon State's punts traveled untouched only 6 yards.

2008 — 75TH BRUT SUN BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. PITTSBURGH

OREGON STATE
PITTSBURGH

Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas • Dec. 31, 2008

Weather — 48 degrees, Clear, W-9 (South-Southwest)

Three points, 20 punts and 10 sacks. Go ahead and say it was unsightly, but Oregon State coach Mike Riley saw nothing short of a masterpiece.

In the lowest-scoring major bowl game in a half-century, the Beavers shut down No. 20 Pittsburgh 3-0 in the Sun Bowl on Justin Kahut's 44-yard field goal.

"That's the game we were in," Riley said. "We played that game. We ended up winning it. Some people will call it ugly, but I can't."

The defensive struggle went on all day. Pitt kicker Connor Lee tried a 58-yard field goal in the closing minutes but the ball, helped by a steady wind, dropped just short of the crossbar.

"I had more confidence in a 58-yard field goal try than going for it on fourth-and-8," Pitt coach Dave Wannstedt said. "I wanted to give our team a chance. I really thought he could kick it."

Not since Air Force and TCU played to 0-0 standoff in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1, 1959, had a bowl produced so few points. It was also the lowest-scoring Sun Bowl since a scoreless tie in 1940 between Catholic and Arizona State.

"We were three downs and out way too much," Riley said. "We put a terrific burden on our defense and we put a lot of burden on the punt team. They came through. That's the game we were in and we played that game. We ended up winning it."

The Beavers (9-4) improved to 5-0 in bowls since Riley began his second stint as their coach in 2003. Kahut provided the only points with his kick shortly before halftime.

Riley liked the way his team rebounded from a 65-38 loss to rival Oregon that denied Oregon State a Rose Bowl berth.

"Guys sulked for a bit," Beavers' defensive end Victor Butler said. "But in the end you've got to get your head in the game. You've got to go play football because the other team wants to play and win just as much as you do."

Riley stood at the interview table and added: "That is well said."

Pitt (9-4), making its first bowl appearance since the 2004 season and the first under Wannstedt, led the Big East in scoring this season, averaging 29.3 points per game. The Panthers managed just 178 total yards.

"We couldn't get anything on offense started at all," standout tailback LeSean McCoy said. "We played horribly."

There was no sign of offense in El Paso, not with McCoy held to 85 yards rushing after averaging 116.9 yards per game this season. Quarterback Bill Stull was 7-for-24 for 52 yards with one interception.

"When you talk about our defense, that was a beautiful performance against a running back that some said was one of the best in the country," Riley said.

The Beavers also won without their spectacular brothers, tailback Jacquizz Rodgers and receiver James Rodgers, both out with shoulder injuries.

Reserve tailback Jeremy Francis had 76 yards rushing and Moevao was 21-for-42 for 193 yards passing with two interceptions. The Beavers finished with 273 total yards. The Panthers finally got a spark early in the fourth quarter when T.J. Porter returned a punt 36 yards to Oregon State's 42.

But three plays later, the big return was wasted because Butler, who had four sacks, stripped Stull and recovered the fumble.

Oregon State led 3-0 after Kahut connected on his field goal with 2:18 remaining before halftime. He later missed a 37-yard attempt midway through the third period.

The Beavers came up empty on the best touchdown opportunity by either team. Officials ruled tight end John Reese was out of bounds on an apparent 9-yard TD reception 10 seconds before the break.

"This is the game it turned out to be," Riley said. "It didn't have to be 3-0. we missed some red-zone opportunities."

The call was upheld after a replay review, and on the next play, Pitt linebacker Scott McKillop -- the Big East defensive player of the year -- intercepted Moevao's pass in the end zone.

2007 — EMERALD BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. MARYLAND

OREGON STATE
MARYLAND

AT&T Park
San Francisco, Calif. • Dec. 28, 2007

Weather — 47 degrees, Cloudy

The first meeting between the two programs in the sixth annual Emerald Bowl at AT&T Park proved to be entertaining, but both teams showed some rustiness after the long layoff from the regular season. The game was played in misty turning to rainy conditions as it progressed.

The Beaver defense, which had been fierce in the first quarter allowing just 16 points all season, was surprised as the Terrapins hit for two touchdowns. The Terps went 80 yards on the opening drive of the game culminating in Chris Turner's 9-yard pass to Isaiah Williams.

Oregon State answered on the following drive that saw starting quarterback Lyle Moevao being injured and forcing Sean Canfield, who had been out since Nov. 3 at USC, into the game. The lefty tied the score with a 14-yard pass to James Rodgers. Maryland would regain the lead when Turner hit Darrius Heyward-Bey for 63 yards — that was the last of the scoring for the ACC bunch.

Canfield worked the team down the field in the last two minutes of the half before Yvenson Bernard, who would earn offensive MVP of the game, scored from two yards out to tie the game at 14-14.

Neither team mounted much offense in the third quarter until Beaver punt returner Taylor Kavanaugh posted a 26-yard return to the Terps 36 to set up what proved to be the winning score. Bernard took a first down handoff and went 29 yards and two plays later approached the goal line only to fumble, but it was pounced on by Rodgers for the score.

Maryland had just two possessions in the fourth quarter and when the Beavers took over with 6:24 left in the game, it was one of the most memorable drives in school history. The drive didn't amount to any scoring, but OSU picked up six first downs in forcing Maryland to use its final two timeouts.

"I'm really proud of our football team for fighting through a strange game in a lot of ways," coach Mike Riley said. "I thought the defense got stronger and stronger as the game went on. ... Offensively, I couldn't describe what the formula is — just getting the ball to Yvenson Bernard and James Rodgers as much as possible."

Bernard finished with 177 yards and linebacker Derrick Doggett earned defensive MVP honors with eight tackles, including a 14-yard sack.

Riley led OSU to its fourth consecutive bowl win — all under Riley's watch.

2006 — BRUT SUN BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. MISSOURI

OREGON STATE
MISSOURI

Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas • Dec. 29, 2006

Weather — 48 degrees, Sunny

Oregon State wanted nothing to do with overtime. Yvenson Bernard pushed into the end zone on a gutsy 2-point conversion run after Joe Newton caught a 14-yard touchdown pass with 22.1 seconds left, and No. 24 Oregon State beat Missouri 39-38 in the 73rd annual Sun Bowl. The win was OSU's third consecutive bowl victory.

The Beavers trailed by 14 points with 12:08 to go before rallying for their eighth victory in nine games. Bernard's 7-yard reception had cut the gap to seven with 6:02 to go.

Tony Temple had 194 yards, four short of the Sun Bowl record, on 20 carries with two touchdowns and Chase Daniel threw two touchdown passes for Missouri (8-5).

Senior quarterback Matt Moore threw four touchdown passes, a Sun Bowl record, and ran for a fifth for Oregon State. He was 5-for-7 for 55 yards on the winning drive, set up after Sammie Stroughter's 38-yard punt return to the Oregon State 46.

Bernard's conversion run came after Missouri called a timeout to freeze kicker Alexis Serna before the extra point. Instead, it gave the Beavers time to persuade coach Mike Riley to go for two - and the gamble paid off.

Missouri had seven plays of 29 yards or longer, including Danario Alexander's 74-yard touchdown catch and Temple's 65-yard run. Missouri responded after Oregon State scored on its opening drive of the second half for a 21-17 lead.

Tommie Saunders' 29-yard TD catch from tight end Chase Coffman off a lateral gave the lead back to Missouri and Temple's 65-yard untouched touchdown run seemingly put the Tigers in control at 31-21 with 5:58 in the third.

The victory was the latest in a series of nail-biters for Oregon State, which beat Hawai'i and Oregon by a combined five points in the last two regular-season games.

Moore was 31-for-54 for 356 yards and set a school record of 182 passes without an interception before getting picked off by Brandon Massey in the third quarter. Oregon State retained possession on the play after Massey fumbled.

The longest season in OSU history ended with the Beavers posting the second most victories ever for the program with 10. Oregon State ended the year No. 21 in the final Associated Press Poll, and No. 22 in the final USA Today Poll and Bowl Championship Series standings.

2004 — INSIGHT BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. NOTRE DAME

OREGON STATE
NOTRE DAME38
21Bank One Ballpark
Phoenix, Ariz. • Dec. 28, 2004*Weather — Indoors*

For the second time since 2000 Oregon State and Notre Dame met in a bowl game in the Valley of the Sun. For the second time Oregon State made a statement with a 38-21 win over the Fighting Irish in the 16th annual Insight Bowl at Bank One Ballpark. The game was televised nationally by ESPN and featured an Insight Bowl attendance record of 45,917.

The Beavers, led by senior quarterback Derek Anderson, scored on two of their first three possessions and would eventually build a 21-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Notre Dame fought back to within 24-14 before Anderson put together arguably the best drive of his four-year career. The Scappoose native took OSU on a 90-yard, 12-play drive that concluded on a 1-yard touchdown pass to tight end Joe Newton, the last of two touchdown scores for the sophomore.

The win capped a rags to riches season for the Beavers and fourth-year head coach Mike Riley. OSU began the season 1-4, but rallied to win six of the final seven contests and end the year as one of the hottest teams in the nation.

"It was a big game for us," Anderson said. "To bounce back from the start that we had in this season and finish like this, it's huge."

Anderson, the offensive MVP of the Insight Bowl, tied a bowl record with four touchdown passes and turned in the sixth best passing mark in the history of the event with 358 yards. He connected with eight different receivers and was responsible for all but 20 yards of the entire offensive output.

Oregon State's first score was set up by a 52-yard punt return by freshman Sammie Stroughter. The Beavers began the drive at the Irish 27. Four plays later Anderson connected with senior George Gillett for a 12-yard score.

A second freshman set up the Beavers for their next score as Derrick Doggett blocked D.J. Fitzpatrick's punt and recovered on the four-yard line. Anderson found Newton on the second play, after being sacked, to push the lead to 14-0.

The Beavers third score came as Anderson found reserve tight end Dan Haines for 11 yards. Notre Dame desperately responded to stay in the game late in the half, scoring with 56 seconds remaining, on a 13-yard pass from quarterback Brady Quinn to tight end Anthony Fasano.

The second half began with cornerback Aric Williams intercepting Quinn as the Irish were putting together a nice drive that could have closed the gap. Williams' interception led to an Alexis Serna 38-yard field goal to make the score 24-7.

Notre Dame did close the gap to 24-14 after Jerome Collins blocked Sam Paulescu's punt. The Irish's best drive of the game went 49 yards on six plays and was capped by a Darius Walker five-yard touchdown run.

The third quarter ended with OSU leading 24-14 and Notre Dame appeared to have momentum on its side, before Anderson's game breaking 90-yard drive.

2003 — LAS VEGAS BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. NEW MEXICO

OREGON STATE
NEW MEXICO55
14Sam Boyd Stadium
Las Vegas, Nev. • Dec. 24, 2003

Weather — 58 degrees, Cloudy, Wind Calm

Mike Riley made his bowl game debut as a head coach a successful one, as Oregon State dominated New Mexico, winning 55-14.

The Beavers' roster was dotted with student-athletes from Las Vegas, and the thought of returning home for a bowl game was exciting, judging from the team's performance.

The Beavers opened the game with the ball and went 83 yards in nine plays for the first score. Quarterback Derek Anderson threw a 34-yard strike to tailback Steven Jackson, one of the Las Vegas boys, for the first of Jackson's bowl game-record-tying five touchdowns. Kirk Yliniemi booted a 21-yard field goal on the next drive, giving OSU a 10-0 lead. New Mexico had no first downs at this point.

The Lobos used a Brand Ratcliff 40-yard kickoff return to set up their only score of the first three quarters. Quarterback Casey Kelly and Hank Baskett hooked up on a 27-yard pass to make the game 10-7, but that was about it for the Lobo offense for the half.

Oregon State ended the opening quarter with a 17-7 lead, as Anderson hit receiver Mike Hass for 42 yards on the final play of the opening stanza. The Beaver offense had already rolled up 204 yards and 10 first downs, while the Beaver defense had allowed just one first down.

The Beavers made it 24-7 midway through the second quarter on the first of four rushing touchdowns, this one a three-yard romp. Less than two minutes later, thanks to a UNM fumble, Jackson went 11 yards to make the score 31-7, the eventual halftime score.

The first half statistics were staggering. OSU had 17 first downs, UNM one. Total yardage was 308-35.

The Beaver defense once again stymied the Lobo offense on the first possession of the second half, and the Beaver offense extended the margin on its first drive. Jackson accounted for 48 of the 59 yards on the drive, including a six-yard score.

The teams traded punts for most of the remaining third quarter, before Yliniemi's 31-yard field goal made it 41-7 at the end of three.

Jackson added another one-yard score early in the fourth quarter to end his night and ultimately his OSU career — he announced after the game that he was forgoing his final year of college eligibility and entering the NFL Draft. Jackson ended the game with 149 yards rushing. Anderson also sat on the sideline for the rest of the game after passing for 322 yards and two touchdowns.

The teams traded touchdowns to end

2002 — INSIGHT.COM BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. PITTSBURGH

PITTSBURGH

Bank One Ballpark
Phoenix, Ariz. • Dec. 26, 2002

Weather — 46 degrees, Clear, Wind Calm

What a difference a half makes.

After heading to the locker room following the first half tied 10-10 with the No. 24 ranked Pittsburgh Panthers, things fell apart for Oregon State in the second half. The Beavers wound up dropping a 38-13 decision to Pitt at the Insight Bowl before 40,533 fans at Bank One Ballpark.

Despite the defeat, it was another very successful season for Oregon State. The Beavers made their third trip in four years to a bowl game and OSU finished the season with eight victories (8-5), which tied for the fourth most season wins in school history.

Pittsburgh opened the scoring by taking the opening kickoff and moving 69 yards in six plays to score when wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald made a diving finger tip reception of a 40-yard touchdown pass from Rod Rutherford with 11:50 left in the quarter. The Panther touchdown amounted to only the third offensive TD allowed by the Beavers' defense during the first quarter of play in the 2002 season.

Oregon State bounced right back with a quick touchdown of its own to quickly tie the contest. It took the Beavers less than two minutes to knot the score at 7-7. OSU moved 72 yards in only three plays. On a second-down play from the OSU 35-yard line, the Beavers' James Newson caught a quick pass from Derek Anderson and appeared to be tackled after about a 10-yard gain. Instead, Newson's knee did not go down and he broke free for a 65-yard TD run down the sideline to tie the game.

Neither team had a scoring threat again until the second quarter. On OSU's fourth possession of the game, the Beavers drove from their own 10 to Pitt's 32 where the drive stalled. Kirk Yliniemi then booted a 50-yard field goal to give OSU a 10-7 lead with 7:56 left in the half. For Yliniemi, the 50-yard field goal matched his career long successful kick.

It appeared OSU would take its 10-7 lead to the locker room, but a great play by Pitt's special teams of downing a punt on OSU's 3-yard line led to an eventual field goal. Unable to move away from the goal line, the Beavers' Carl Tobey punted from the end zone and Pitt got the ball at OSU's 32-yard line with 1:07 to play. Pitt reached OSU's 27-yard line and David Abdul booted a 45-yard field goal as time ran out in the first half.

Pitt's Tez Morris intercepted an Anderson pass during OSU's first possession of the second half and returned the pick 37 yards to the OSU 23-yard line to change the entire momentum of the game. It was the only interception thrown by Anderson. Three plays later Rutherford scored on a 1-yard run for a 17-10 Panther lead.

The backbreaker for OSU came later in the third quarter when the Panthers' Shawn Robinson returned a punt 66 yards for a touchdown to give Pitt a 24-10 lead with 3:26 remaining in the period.

The Beavers had a good chance to get back into the game on their next possession. OSU moved from its own 30 to the Pitt 7-yard line for first and goal. However, Anderson got sacked on first down (loss of 7 yards) and the Beavers were held to a 31-yard field goal by Yliniemi. The field goal by Yliniemi was his 15th consecutive successful boot of the season, which tied the OSU career record.

Pittsburgh added a pair of touchdowns in the fourth quarter when the Beavers gave the Panthers great field position as a result of failing on a fourth down attempt and a fumble.

One huge problem for OSU in the game was its inability to establish the run. Steven Jackson entered the game as the nation's No. 4 leading rusher and the Beavers' season record holder, but he finished the game with only 34 yards.

Sun Devil Stadium
Tempe, Ariz. • Jan. 1, 2001

Weather — 63 degrees, Clear, W-5 (West)

Oregon State played its best and most complete football game of the season in routing No. 10 Notre Dame 41-9 in the 30th annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl in the Beavers' first-ever appearance in a BCS Bowl.

Oregon State totally dominated the Irish from the opening kickoff. The Beavers led only 12-3 at halftime and Notre Dame was fortunate the margin wasn't larger as OSU rolled up 278 yards in the first half, including 246 through the air, to 98 for the Irish.

The Beavers scored on three of their four possessions in the first half. On the one possession OSU did not score, the Beavers drove 83 yards in nine plays, only to be stopped on fourth down at the Notre Dame 1-yard line. Patrick McCall was thrown for a 4-yard loss on fourth down as OSU was attempting to stretch its 6-0 lead. As it was, the Beavers took only four plays to score on their next possession, which started at their 10-yard line. After a 14-yard pass to T.J. Houshmandzadeh and a 2-yard run by Ken Simonton, Jonathan Smith connected on a 74-yard TD pass to Chad Johnson boosting OSU's lead to 12-0.

Notre Dame had generated only eight yards in total offense on six offensive plays in the first quarter, a quarter dominated by the aggressive Beaver defense.

It took a major mistake by OSU for Notre Dame to avoid being shut out in the first half. The Beavers had the Irish pinned on their own 2-yard line facing a third down-and-31 situation. OSU forced an incomplete pass, but the Beavers' Calvin Carlyle was flagged for a late hit on the play and the 15-yard personal foul carried an automatic first down. The Irish took advantage of the break and marched to OSU's 12-yard line before kicking a 29-yard field goal as time expired in the first half.

The third quarter will be remembered forever by Beaver fans, as OSU pummeled Notre Dame with a 29-point blitz-krieg. It all started innocently enough as the Irish forced the Beavers to punt for the first time in the contest after holding OSU on the opening series. The floodgates opened after that. In the span of eight minutes the Beavers accounted for 29 points.

On Notre Dame's first possession of the second half, Darnell Robinson sacked Irish quarterback Matt LoVecchio on second down and forced a fumble in the process. Two plays later Smith connected on a 23-yard TD pass to Houshmandzadeh. Next came a bizarre punt return for a TD as Houshmandzadeh returned a Notre Dame punt from OSU's 27, was hit at the 50 and fumbled, only

1999 — O’AHU BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. HAWAII’I

HAWAII’I
OREGON STATE

Aloha Stadium
Honolulu, Hawaii’i • Dec. 24, 1999

Weather — 79 degrees, Fair, W-15-25 (South-Southwest)

Oregon State fans invaded the Islands in mass as the program made its first bowl appearance since January of 1965. The Beavers had the unenviable chore of playing the University of Hawaii’i Rainbow Warriors in the O’ahu Bowl at UH’s home field — Aloha Stadium.

Oregon State looked like it was on its way to its first post-season victory since the 1962 Liberty Bowl, when it took its first possession 79 yards in 10 plays to score on Ken Simonton’s 1-yard run with 8:23 left in the opening quarter. He rushed for 30 yards on OSU’s first play from scrimmage and accounted for 40 yards on the first TD drive.

OSU got a big break late in the first period and didn’t capitalize on the opportunity, which might have been one of the big plays of the game. OSU had to punt on its second possession and UH’s Avion Weaver fumbled after a hit by Terrence Carroll, who also recovered the ball at the Hawaii 14-yard line. The Beavers were unable to move the ball and Ryan Cesca’s 42-yard field goal sailed right, seemingly giving Hawaii’i new confidence.

Hawaii’i took advantage of OSU’s only turnover of the game to get on the scoreboard. Jonathan Smith fumbled a snap from center at the Beavers’ 24 yard line. The Rainbows were stopped at the 8-yard line and settled for a 26-yard field goal by Eric Hannum. Hawaii’i tried an onside kick following the field goal, but the Beavers recovered for great field position at the Hawaii’i 49.

Once again, Cesca missed on a field goal attempt from 31 yards out. The Warriors took over on their own 20 and put together their only long drive of the game, moving 80 yards in eight plays to score on a 9-yard pass from Dan Robinson to Channon Harris, putting Hawaii’i up 10-7. OSU tied the contest on the final play of the first half, a 37-yard field goal by Cesca, following an interception by Calvin Carlyle.

Hawaii’i scored 10 points in the third quarter and the Beavers were held scoreless as they could not sustain a drive. The Rainbows moved out to a 23-10 lead with 2:58 left in the game on a 35-yard field goal by Hannum and appeared to have the game locked up at that point. However, OSU’s offense finally caught fire and Smith moved the Beavers 81 yards in 10 plays in only 1:31 elapsed time as Simonton scored on a 13-yard draw play to narrow the margin to 23-17.

Then, the biggest play of the game occurred following the Beaver touchdown. OSU executed an onside kick and Roddy Tompkins recovered at the Hawaii’i 48. But, an official threw a flag indicating the Beavers had not lined up properly and voided the recovery. The next onside kick went out of bounds and Hawaii’i was able to run out the remaining 1:27.

Simonton was named OSU’s outstanding player

1965 ('64 SEASON) — ROSE BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. MICHIGAN

MICHIGAN

34

Rose Bowl
Pasadena, Calif. • Jan. 1, 1965

Despite this visual evidence to the contrary, the Rose Bowl can be anything but a bed of roses. Oregon State found that out on January 1, 1965, losing to Michigan 34-7. The No. 8-ranked Beavers had gone into the game as 11-point underdogs to the No. 4-ranked Wolverines, but OSU did go into the game with some optimism.

Early on, Oregon State looked like it might pull off a stunner. After a scoreless first quarter, the Beavers took a 7-0 lead on a Doug McDougal 5-yard pass from Paul Brothers, but Michigan led 12-7 at halftime and the lead would grow.

Leading up to the game, there was controversy. When OSU and Oregon rejoined the Athletic Association of Western Universities for the 1964 season, schools didn't have time to juggle their schedules for a full round-robin slate of conference games. The Beavers and USC both finished with 3-1 records in league play, the selection of the Rose Bowl representative was left up to a vote of the conference's faculty athletic representatives; OSU had an 8-2 overall mark to USC's 7-3. The decision didn't sit well with many in and around Los Angeles and the Beavers took quite a bit of grief from the press and public during their visit.

1962 — LIBERTY BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. VILLANOVA

OREGON STATE
VILLANOVA

Philadelphia Stadium
Philadelphia, Pa. • Dec. 15, 1962

With the temperature 17 degrees at kickoff, only 17,048 fans made their way to the enormous arena on the south side to see the No. 17-ranked Beavers beat hometown Villanova 6-0. Wrote the late George Pasero of The Oregon Journal: "The Liberty Bowl was televised, of course, with an estimated audience of 27 million in saloons and living rooms a lot more comfortable than the 17,048 human ice cakes who attended."

Both teams switched from cleats to tennis shoes prior to the game due to frozen footing.

The only score came on Terry Baker's 99-yard run with 9:54 left in the first quarter, and Oregon State spent the rest of the afternoon holding off the Wildcats. OSU's undersized line was pushed around between the 20-yard lines and Villanova outgained the Beavers 309-299, but Oregon State came up with four fumbles and two interceptions.

Baker wasn't all of Oregon State's offense, but it was close. He rushed for 137 yards and passed for 123. His performance clinched his Heisman Trophy.

Rose Bowl
Pasadena, Calif. • Jan. 1, 1957

Oregon State played in its second Rose Bowl game, but its first at the Rose Bowl. The Beavers' previous appearance was in 1942 in the only Rose Bowl not played in Southern California — the game was moved to Durham, N.C. because of World War II.

A crowd of 100,000 witnessed 10th-ranked Oregon State victimized by some early mistakes and the Beavers lost 35-19 to third-ranked Iowa. OSC head coach Tommy Prothro and the Beavers had already had one crack at Iowa, losing to the Hawkeyes 14-13 on Iowa's home field in early October; it was the first Rose Bowl to pair teams that had already played during the regular season. Wrote the late George Pasero of The Oregon Journal after talking to the Beavers after the game: "All the opinions ended up at the same place. OSC tackling was the worst of the season and no one seemed able to explain why."

Halfback Joe Francis rushed for 73 yards and passed for another 130 yards to lead Oregon State's offensive attack. Back Sterling Hammock had four receptions for 65 yards.

1942 ('41 SEASON) — ROSE BOWL — OREGON STATE VS. DUKE

OREGON STATE
DUKE

GAME NOTES

This game produced two important firsts. It was OSU's first-ever trip to the famous New Year's Day classic, and it remains the only Rose Bowl played outside Pasadena, which has prompted sports historians over the years to prefix the bowl's famous name with the word "displaced."

The reason was due to the blackout of the West Coast that had followed the attack on Pearl Harbor. The host stadium was Duke University's home field in Durham, N.C., with the undefeated Blue Devils picked as 3-1 favorites. Oregon State's victory came as a big surprise to Eastern and Southern sportswriters, with Sid Feder of the Associated Press writing, "Probably never in the quarter century history of the Tournament of Roses had such a completely overlooked betting underdog jumped up to beat the big fellows. Oregon State came East to the wonderment of most of Dixie as to why the Westerners were going to show up at all."

Beaver boss Lon Stiner, at 38 and the youngest head coach in Rose Bowl history, had prepared his team with a passing attack that dazzled the North Carolinians. Jack Gunther of UPI wrote, "The Beavers skipped and slammed and flicked passes with an ease and finesse which completely baffled the record crowd."

For Oregon State, the star was Dan Durdan, who passed and ran Oregon State College to victory. He was awarded Player of the Game honors and later inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame. Beaver greets Bob Dethman and George Zelick also added points. Duke blocking back Tommy Prothro also played magnificently.

In one of the great ironies in the annals of college football, Prothro would one day become Oregon State head coach and take the Beavers to not one but two Rose Bowls. The football practice field at OSU bears his name. Returning home, the victorious Stiner and company were feted at a special Rose Bowl Banquet with Oregon Gov. Charles Sprague one of the principal speakers. In 1985, the entire squad was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame. In 1988 they entered the OSU Athletic Hall of Fame. OSU fans at the time considered the game to be the greatest win in school history.

The winning score came in the third quarter when Gene Gray scored on a 68-yard pass from Bob Dethman.

GAME NOTES

HONOLULU, Hawai'i — Power generated by the Oregon State College Beavers overcame the tricky plays and passing attack of Hawaii's Rainbows and gave the boys from the Northwest a 39-6 victory in a Pineapple Bowl game that was finished under arc lights.

The Beaver victory climaxed an island invasion that started with Oregon State defeating the Healanani town team on Christmas day.

The Beavers rolled up three touchdowns in the first period against Hawai'i, and added another in the third and two more in the fourth. Hawai'i scored in the second period. Showers late in the game handicapped Hawai'i's passing attack.

Bob Olson, Morrie Kohler, Ken Dow and George Peters scored a touchdown by power drives in the first five minutes of play, with Olson passing to Peters for the final six yards. A few minutes later, Bob Dethman returned a Hawai'i punt 12 yards to the 29-yard line, from where Bob Dethman cracked center for 18 yards and Jim Kisselburgh ambled 11 yards through tackle to score.

Vic Kohler intercepted one of Roy Strohlín's passes in the same period, lateralled to John Tsoutsouvas who was down on the Oregon State 49. John Hackenbruck made 18 on an end-around. Kohler added five at the line, and then Joe Tomich passed to Hackenbruck in the end zone.

Hawai'i drove to Oregon State's 12-yard line early in the second quarter before the Beavers held, but Kisselburgh's kick was short and Hawai'i scored on two plays, with Strohlín passing from Oregon State's 47 to Cal Campbell on the 19 and then to Nolle Smith in the end zone. Oregon State battled down to the Hawai'i 1-yard line where Dow fumbled as the half ended.

OSU AWARD WINNERSOREGON STATE UNIVERSITY ATHLETICS HALL OF FAME

The Oregon State University Sports Hall of Fame was established in 1988 in an effort to honor and preserve the memory of those student-athletes, teams, coaches, and members of the athletic staff who have contributed in an outstanding and positive way to the promotion of the Oregon State University athletic and academic program.

To be considered for this high honor, there are seven criteria that must be met:

1. If a nominee was an athlete, the person must have completed his or her eligibility at least five (5) years prior to induction.
2. If a student-athlete, the person must have earned two Varsity "O" letters.
3. If a coach, athletic administrator, or athletic staff member, the person must have either earned a Varsity "O" letter at Oregon State University or have been on the staff for at least five (5) years and have become inactive at OSU.
4. The records of the person considered should be so outstanding that there would be little question as to the qualifications necessary for induction.
5. Consideration will be given for personal conduct in sports and the personal contribution to the idea of sport.
6. Consideration will be given to teams who have contributed in a very outstanding and positive way.
7. Criteria and qualifications will be based upon the nominees' participation while attending or serving Oregon State University.

However, accomplishments after leaving the University may be an important part of consideration.

RESER STADIUM/OSU ADMIN

RESER STADIUM

The home of the Oregon State University Beavers has had over $360 million in fiscal improvements completed since the 2005 season. The east side of the complex houses some of the finest amenities in all of college and NFL football, including the popular Club and Loge, and a new playing surface (FieldTurf) was installed prior to the 2012 season. Prior to the 2016 season the popular Terrace was introduced to Reser Stadium providing a unique fan experience showcasing the state's premier food and beverage. In 2017 the expanded Valley Football Center opened to further modernize the on-campus Reser Stadium.

The 2023 season saw the completion of Reser Stadium, featuring a new West Side, making it into a nation best-in-class facility with some of the best sightlines in the sport, in addition to one of the largest videoboards on the west coast. That was installed just prior to the 2022 season.

The OSU student-body sits directly behind the Beavers' bench along the east sidelines, with passionate fans in other sections. One of the unique aspects of the stadium is that the seating is close to the field, giving OSU a distinct home field advantage.

That home field advantage has helped the Beavers score some of the program's biggest wins in recent seasons, including snapping USC's 27-game Pac-10 Conference win streak in 2006 and then defeating the No. 1 Trojans in 2008.

Reser Stadium was originally known as Parker Stadium until June 14, 1999. At that time Al and Pat Reser of Beaverton, Ore., made a personal seven-figure gift to OSU athletics.

The stadium, which is located on the south side of campus, was originally built in 1953 at a cost of $330,463.19 with a seating capacity of 28,000. Following the 1965 Rose Bowl, additional end zone bleacher seats were added to raise the capacity to 33,000. The stadium was expanded to 40,593 in 1967 with a new addition to the west side, including a new press box. Stadium capacity was reduced in 1990 as a result of the construction of the original Valley Football Center. In June of 1996, an enlarged Valley Football Center opened.

Reser Stadium has become a shining monument for not only Athletics, but the entire University. "Beaver Nation" has embraced the upgrades to the facility that has become a source of pride for all of Oregon State University.

JAYATHI MURTHY*UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Second year at Oregon State

Education: Indian Institute of Technology - bachelor's, mechanical engineering; Washington State University - master's, mechanical engineering; University of Minnesota - doctorate, mechanical engineering
Family: Husband Sanjay Mathur

Jayathi Y. Murthy, a national leader in higher education engineering teaching, research and service, began her service as Oregon State University's 16th president on Sept. 9, 2022.

As OSU's president, Murthy is committed to improving access to college for all learners; advancing student success, undergraduate graduation rates and inclusive excellence throughout the university; expanding OSU's strong research portfolio by investing in research infrastructure; and supporting faculty excellence in teaching, research and extension and engagement programs.

Prior to joining Oregon State, Murthy served as the Ronald and Valerie Sugar Dean at the UCLA Henry Samueli School of Engineering and Applied Science since January 2016. Murthy was the first woman dean at UCLA's engineering school.

During her tenure, she made expanding access to a UCLA engineering education a top priority by deepening relationships with local community colleges, increasing outreach to underrepresented minority groups and easing the transition for transfer students. She led the effort to establish Women in Engineering at UCLA — a program that supports the full participation of women in engineering. While at UCLA, she was active in helping raise more than $330 million in philanthropy.

Under Murthy's leadership at UCLA, the engineering school focused on growth in areas critical to the 21st century, including engineering in medicine and biology; sustainable and resilient urban systems; artificial intelligence, machine learning and data science; cybersecurity and the future internet; robotics and cyberphysical systems; as well as advanced materials and manufacturing. She also has served as a distinguished professor in the school's mechanical and aerospace department.

Before joining UCLA, Murthy was chair of the mechanical engineering department at the University of Texas at Austin and held the Ernest Cockrell, Jr. Memorial Chair in Engineering from 2012-2015. Prior to that, Murthy was a mechanical engineering professor at Purdue University from 2001-2011 and served as a professor of mechanical engineering at Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh from 1998 to 2001.

While at Purdue and University of Texas, Murthy served as the director of the Center for Prediction of Reliability, Integrity and Survivability of Microsystems (PRISM) from 2008 to 2014, a center of excellence supported by the National Nuclear Security Administration (NNSA).

Murthy began her career at Arizona State University, where she was an assistant professor of mechanical and aerospace engineering from 1984 to 1988. From 1988 to 1998, Murthy worked at New Hampshire-based Fluent, Inc., a developer and vendor of the world's most widely used computational fluid dynamics software. She led the development of algorithms and software that still form the core of the company's products.

She has authored over 330 technical publications.

Murthy received a doctorate in mechanical engineering from the University of Minnesota, a master's degree in mechanical engineering from Washington State University and a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from the Indian Institute of Technology, Kanpur, where she was named a distinguished alumna in 2012.

She is a member of the National Academy of Engineering (NAE), foreign fellow of the Indian National Academy of Engineering (INAE), fellow of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ASME) and the NCAA Division I Board of Directors. Murthy is the recipient of many honors, including the ASME Electronics and Photonics Packaging Division Clock Award in 2012, the ASME Heat Transfer Memorial Award in 2016, the ASME Kate Gleason Award and the Linn-Benton NAACP Social Change Champion in 2023, and a Women of Influence Award from the Portland Business Journal in 2024.

Her research interests include nanoscale heat transfer, computational fluid dynamics, and simulations of fluid flow and heat transfer for industrial applications. Recently, her focus is on sub-micron thermal transport, multiscale multi-physics simulations of micro- and nano-electromechanical systems (MEMS and NEMS) and the uncertainty quantifications involved in those systems.

Murthy is married to Sanjay Mathur, an aerospace engineer who works at SparkCognition, a firm specializing in artificial intelligence systems and development.

SCOTT BARNES

VICE PRESIDENT/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Eighth year at Oregon State

Hometown: Spokane, Washington

Education: Fresno State, 1986 - B.S. Physical Education; Fresno State, 1993 - M.S. Sports Administration and Physical Education

Family: Wife, Jody; children Milanna and Isaac

Scott Barnes was named Vice President and Director of Athletics Dec. 22, 2016 by then Oregon State University President Dr. Ed Ray.

In 2023, Barnes completed a nearly two-year Completing Reser Stadium project, a $161 million renovation that makes the Beavers' home a best-in-class football facility with year-round programs and facilities for all OSU students, faculty and staff.

Barnes also oversaw the expansion of the Whyte Track and Field Center, which added fan seating, a press box and restrooms. That came on the heels of a 20,000-square foot practice gymnastics facility, the largest in the Pac-12. Those two facility projects are a part of over $23-million of completed improvements made to women's facilities stemming from the Oregon State Athletics Strategic Plan Barnes initiated in 2018.

In Barnes' tenure, OSU Athletics has made significant strides academically and athletically. Beaver student-athletes are among the leaders in the Pac-12 Conference for academic accomplishments, the Valley Football Center officially re-opened and the popular Fan Experience Committee was created. In addition, he has increased the emphasis on fundraising and developing a sustainable business model that will ensure Beaver Athletics continues to progress and thrive, and debuted the BUILD THE DAM Strategic Plan to guide the program forward for future years.

OSU is just one of two programs nationally, since 2018, to have its football team win 10 games, both its women's and men's basketball teams advance to the Elite 8, and see both its baseball and softball teams advance to their respective College World Series.

Oregon State, meanwhile, was the only program nationally to have first-round selections in the NFL, MLB and MLS Drafts in 2024.

Facilities has been at the forefront of Barnes' leadership at OSU. He has spearheaded facility projects that include a $3.5 million refresh of the Sports Performance Center, completion of phase II of the Valley Football Center, a remodel of the men's and women's basketball locker rooms, the construction of Casey Corner at Goss Stadium at Coleman Field, and the remodel of Paul Lorenz Field (soccer), among other projects.

Barnes has made numerous strategic hires with the Beavers' intercollegiate programs, including head football coach Trent Bray, head men's soccer coach Greg Dalby, head women's rowing coach Michael Eichler, head track and field/cross country coach Louie Quintana, head baseball coach Mitch Canham, head women's soccer coach Caroline Kelly, volleyball head coach Lindsey Behonick and head wrestling coach Chris Pendleton.

"We are building for stability and sustainability in all of our programs, and to create a vision that excites and inspires all of Beaver Nation," Barnes said.

As part of the overall university administration, Barnes serves on several key committees and represents OSU at the Pac-12 Conference and NCAA levels. The two-time Far West Region Athletic Director the Year recently spent five years on the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee (Chair for 2014-15). As of July 1, 2024, he has served on the following Pac-12 and NCAA committees: the Executive Committee (2019-20 Chair), the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Oversight Committee, the Men's Basketball Committee, Football Oversight Committee, Lead 1 Board of Directors, the Administrative Subcommittee, Bowls Committee, Men's Basketball Tournament Committee, Men's Basketball Liaison, Television Committee, and Rose Bowl Management Committee. In addition, he served as a faculty member on the Lead 1 Athletic Directors Association and in January 2018 he was one of four Director of Athletics in the country to visit Asia on a Nike sponsored trip.

Barnes has spent over three decades in athletics administration, including more than 20 years as an athletics director. He arrived back to his native Pacific Northwest from the University of Pittsburgh, where he served as the Panthers' Director of Athletics for nearly two years. Pittsburgh achieved high success academically and athletically that included bowl trips, conference titles and record academic achievements.

Prior to Pitt, Barnes headed the Utah State University athletics program from 2008-15 as Director of Athletics and was promoted to Vice President in 2012. While at Utah State, the Aggies experienced unprecedented success that included multiple bowl trips in football, 20 league titles and a successful transition to the Mountain West Conference.

Barnes has also served as the Director of Athletics at Eastern Washington University and Humboldt State University. In addition, he has held various athletics roles at the University of The Pacific, the University of San Diego, Iowa State University and the University of Washington. He also has experience in corporate business and professional basketball.

The Spokane native graduated from Fresno State with a bachelor's degree in 1986 and a master's degree in athletics administration and physical education in 1993. A basketball letterman under coach Boyd Grant, he helped the Bulldogs advance to two NCAA Tournaments and two NITs. Barnes was a second-team all-conference player as a senior before playing professionally in Germany.

He and his wife, Jody, have two children: Daughter, Milanna, and son, Isaac.
